

DIALOGUES WITH MOZAMBIQUE

MARCH 5 – 6, 2010, TRONDHEIM, NORWAY

PROGRAMME OF AFRICAN STUDIES, NTNU

AFRICA NETWORK NORWAY

CONVENOR: SHEILA KHAN

(MANCHESTER/COIMBRA/MINHO/NTNU)

The conference aims to bring together well-known professors and researchers on the field of Mozambican studies, to provide students, researchers, professors, and practitioners concerned with Mozambique's development and future challenges with a clear, deep and structured knowledge and insight on contemporary studies on the country. In this regard, this conference intends to call attention to a variety of research topics that will be offered by invited speakers and by selected conference participants.

The conference addresses two main questions:

- What are the contemporary debates, reflections and research projects on Mozambican Studies?
- What can we learn from Mozambique as a democratic African country?

INVITED KEYNOTE SPEAKERS:

Professor Teresa Cruz e Silva

University of Eduardo Mondlane (Maputo)

Professor Anna Maria Gentili

Prof. of African Studies, University of Bologna

INVITED PANEL CHAIRS:

Professor Hilary Owen

(Manchester University, Dept. of Spanish and Portuguese Studies)

Professor Paula Meneses

(Coimbra University, Centre for Social Studies)

Dr. Bjørn Enge Bertelsen

(Bergen University, Department of Social Anthropology)

Dr. Inge Tvedten

(CMI, CHR, Michelsen Institute)

